

May

On the fifth
Dayt of Christmas,
a dollar is the plan,
For a night that will
please my man!

Our Date tonight is all about dollars.

First, we will go to the dollar store and each buy two things. One thing for each other, and one thing for later on in the evening.

The remaining dollars will be used for dinner. Fast food dollar menus will be our choices. You cannot spend more than $2 per restaurant.

We will finish the evening at home in our room where more dollars will be spent! 😊
